Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2014/04/15 : CIA-RDP66B00403R000300010031-5

Telephone Calls In Correspondence 0 Out Correspondence 5

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

3. Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  4. Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.		ay - 21 August 1964
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William Gulledge, Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Staff Director, Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, and advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.	3.	Met with Mr. William Gulledge.
And advised him that the Comptroller General opinion was being held by the Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Comptroller until next Wednesday. Mr. Gulledge advised that he will be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  4. Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.		• be out of town during the better part of the coming week and since the bill is now before the House he would defer to the recommendation of the House committee.  4. Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.	the House committee.
Met with Mr. William A. Irvine, Professional Staff Member, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.
who advised that Mr. Charles Johnson, Staff Director of the Committee, will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.	- will be returning to the office from Florida about 10 o'clock Monday morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.	Professional Staff Member,	House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, morning and it would be appreciated if I would come by at that time and fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.		•
fill him in with regard to the Comptroller General ruling.	_	•
		·
	fill him in with regard to the	e Comptroller General ruling.

2FCKF1

Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2014/04/15 : CIA-RDP66B00403R000300010031-5

SECRET

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Friday - 21 August 1964

Page 2

Legislative Counsel

6.	Mr. Critchfield, C/NE, briefed
Congressman Ogden Re	eid on the Middle East area in connection with Reid's forthcoming trip	to Israel. Mr. Warner introduced Critchfield nd Reid and then left (	Critchfield for the actual briefing in view of other pressing matters	I understand from Mr. Reid in a subsequent elephone call as well a	as from Mr. Critchfield that the briefing went erv well and that the	Congressman was very impressed with the calibre
f the briefing. Mr. R	eid also requested
z die briefing. wir. ix	leta also requested
7.
	Messrs. Echols, Warner
nd met with	n Ed Braswell for several hours attempting to ork out details on a fi	nal version of the retirement bill. It was indicated at we would get togeth	ner again Tuesday afternoon.
	/ / JOHN S. WARNER
•	/ / DOIAN O. WARNER

cc: Ex Dir/Compt
DD/S
Mr. Chretien

SEGNET